

FLOOD DAMAGE MITIGATION: A DECADE AFTER THE GREAT MIDWEST FLOOD OF 1993

PART A: DEFINING AND ACHIEVING FLOOD MITIGATION SUCCESS

Organizer: Stuart Davis

“Factors Influencing National Flood Damage Trends.” Lauren Cartwright, U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, Institute for Water Resources, Alexandria, Virginia, and Laura Zepp, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, Blacksburg, Virginia.

“Intergovernmental Success in Multi-Component Flood Mitigation.” Robert Yowell, North Central Regional Director, Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection, Williamsport, PA.

“Nonstructural Flood Mitigation Activities of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.” Larry Buss, Chief of Hydrology and Hydraulic, Omaha District Corps of Engineers, and Chairman of the Corps of Engineers National Nonstructural and Flood Proofing Committee, Omaha, Nebraska.

“Building Technical Capability: Training and Development Initiatives for Corps Water Resources Professionals.” Duane Baumann, Southern Illinois University, and Mark Dunning, U.S. Army Engineer Institute for Water Resources, Alexandria, Virginia.